OFFICE OF THE CITY MANAGER

LTC No. 149-2013

LETTER TO COMMISSION

TO: Mayor Matti Herrera Bower and Members of the City Commission

FROM: Rafael E. Granado, City Clerk

DATE: May 2, 2013

SUBJECT: PERSONNEL BOARD VACANCIES

At the February 4, 2013 Special Commission Meeting, Mayor Matti Herrera Bower requested a meeting of the City Attorney's Oversight Committee to review the duties and responsibilities of the Personnel Board. On April 29, 2013, the City Attorney's Oversight Committee met, and City Attorney Jose Smith and Chief Deputy City Attorney Donald Papy provided a detailed report of the duties, powers and composition of the Personnel Board.

During the City Attorney's Oversight Committee meeting, Human Resources Director Sylvia Crespo-Tabak noted that there are currently three (3) vacancies in the Personnel Board, which are creating difficulties in attaining a quorum. In an attempt to fill these existing vacancies, attached are the applications and resumes of current applicants to the Personnel Board:

- Harold Foster — Currently serving on the Health Advisory Board
- Lori E. Gold, J.D., M.S. — Not currently serving on any City Board or Committee
- Laurie Kaye Davis — Currently serving on the Community Relations Board
- Elsa M. Orlandini, Psy.D — Currently serving on the Miami Beach Commission for Women
- Richard "Rick" J. Preira, Esq. — Currently serving on the Board of Adjustment and the Ad Hoc Charter Review and Revision Board

It is requested that the City Commission fill these vacancies as soon as possible.

Richard “Rick” J. Preira, Esq.

Richard J. Preira

Partner

Richard J. Preira has successfully handled complex matrimonial cases and high-profile criminal defense litigation for more than thirty years in South Florida. Before being recruited by SMGQ to lead their Family Law Practice Group in 2012, he was the managing partner for several successful boutique litigation firms.

He is regularly selected for inclusion in Super Lawyers for his practice in marital and family law, and was listed in Florida Trend Magazine's "Legal Elite" as among the best marital and family law attorneys in Florida. He is an AV-rated attorney by Martindale-Hubbell.

Rick is devoted to serving the South Florida community. A long-time resident of Miami Beach, he serves on the Miami Beach Board of Adjustment and Miami Beach Charter Review Board. He is on the Board of Directors of Kidside, the fundraising arm to Miami-Dade County Family Court Services. He was a charter member of the First Family Law American Inn of Court and later served as its President. He is also a member and former President of the Miami Beach Bar Association and a former chairman of a Florida Bar Grievance Committee.

Rick is a Supreme Court of Florida Certified Family Mediator, Guardian ad Litem, qualified expert witness in marital and family law matters, and a pro bono advocate on behalf of petitioners seeking marriage annulments before the Metropolitan Tribunal of the Archdiocese of Miami. He is a frequent lecturer on Florida family law.

He is admitted to practice law in all Florida state courts, before all federal district courts in Florida, the 4th, 5th and 11th Circuits of the United States Court of Appeals, and the Supreme Court of the United States of America. He has also been admitted pro hac vice to practice law in federal courts in New York, North Carolina, and California.

Rick is a fitness and sports enthusiast who can be seen running on Miami Beach in the early dawn and cycling between Miami Beach and the Florida Keys on the weekends. He has completed the New York Marathon, Chicago Marathon (twice), Marine Corps Marathon, and Pan Mass Challenge Cycling Event to raise funds for the Dana Farber Cancer Institute. He and his daughter, Jamie, are both PADI Certified Advanced Open Water Scuba Divers and dive buddies. He competes locally in triathlons, half-marathons and adventure races, is a devoted Ashtanga Yoga practitioner, and enjoys spinning, Sanctuary 7 Pilates, and paddle boarding. He has cycled the San Juan Islands and mountains in Bryce-Zion, Utah. He will accept almost any challenge that will make him break a sweat, including running five miles up Mount Washington without stopping.

Extended Bio »

PRACTICE AREAS:

Marital and Family Law

Rick handles all aspects of marital and family law, including: Dissolution of Marriage; Paternity; Jurisdiction Disputes; Name Changes; Parenting Plans; Relocation; Modification; Enforcement; Hague Convention (International Child Abduction); Division of Assets and Liabilities; Child Support; and Prenuptial and Postnuptial Agreements. He has also extensively testified as an expert witness on the issue of attorney fees in marital and family law proceedings. He is regularly appointed by Circuit Court Judges to serve as a Special Master in order to preside over depositions and adjudicate discovery disputes. He is often court-appointed to serve as a Guardian ad Litem in family proceedings. He was privileged to serve as a Guardian ad Litem in a highly contested multi-jurisdictional custody dispute involving children with special needs.

Criminal Defense:

Rick has represented criminal defendants in Aruba, Colombia, Ecuador, Panama, Guatemala, Mexico, Washington D.C., New York, California, Florida, Texas, North Carolina, Connecticut, Michigan, and Maryland. He has successfully defended individuals accused of Narcotics and Drug Trafficking; White Collar Crimes, Real Estate Fraud, Mortgage Fraud, Medicare/Medicaid, Insurance Fraud, Money Laundering, Public Corruption, RICO Racketeering, Internet Crimes, Grand Jury Investigations, Congressional Investigations, Domestic Violence, Asset Forfeitures, Sentencing Hearing/Sentence Reductions, Criminal Appeals, Criminal Investigations, Weapons charges, Assault, Theft, Burglary, Robbery, Juvenile Offenses, Probation violations, Perjury, Murder, Conspiracy to Murder, and Foreign Enemy Cases.

Notably, in State v. Thompson, 507 So.2d 1074 (Fla. 1987), Rick persuaded the Florida Supreme Court to reverse an en banc opinion of the Third District Court of Appeal and determine that the United States Constitution required that Florida law be changed in order to permit a testifying criminal defendant to confer privately with counsel while giving testimony, thereby reversing the conviction of his client, Wayne Thompson.

Litigation and Dispute Resolution:

Though a savvy and seasoned litigator, Rick recognizes that successful litigation and the advantageous resolution of disputes require timing, deliberation and tactic, not brute force. Brute force is wildly expensive and inefficient. Based upon this philosophy and his successful resolution of the most contentious of cases, Rick is a highly sought after Florida Supreme Court Certified Family Mediator. He is frequently recommended as a Family Law Mediator by Circuit Court Family Division Judges in Miami-Dade and Broward Counties.

PROFESSIONAL PRESENTATIONS, MEMBERSHIPS AND COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

- Lecturer, Miami-Dade County Family Court Committee: Airtight Premarital Agreements.

EDUCATION

A 1980 graduate of the University Of Miami School Of Law, Rick received the American Jurisprudence Book Award in Constitutional Law and was the University Of Miami School Of Law, Trial Advocacy Program's Outstanding Trial Advocate of 1980. Rick earned his Bachelor of Business Administration, cum laude, from the University Of Miami School Of Business, and graduated with high honors from Broward Community College with a degree in Accounting, where he was President of the Student Government Association and of his fraternity, Tau Kappa Epsilon.

PERSONAL

Rick was born and raised in the Bronx, where his father was a member of the New York City Police Department. He graduated from Cardinal Hayes High School with a New York Regents Scholarship. Rick relocated to South Florida to attend the University of Miami, and never left. He has been married for more than thirty years to his wife Elise, a social worker with a background in addiction therapy and marital and family therapy. They have two adult children. Their daughter Jamie, a graduate of Miami Country Day School and Eckerd College, is a counselor at CalWood Environmental Camp in Jamestown, Colorado. Their son Matt, a graduate of Miami Country Day School and New College, was a recipient of a The New Times Genius Grant and a Knights Arts Challenge winner, receiving a grant from the Knight Foundation, for his creation of Roofless Records (www.rooflessrex.com), an independent record label. Matt is also a writer for the New Times and other local publications.

IN THE MEDIA

Rick made his national media debut in 1982 while advancing a defense of Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder for the first time in the United States on behalf of Vietnam Veteran George "Skip" Stringer, a case that was featured on NBC's Nightline and in the cover story of the Miami Herald's Tropic Magazine. He most recently appeared in the national media while representing a lead defendant in the Congressional investigation of the Hewlett Packard corporate spying case, appearing on C-Span and on the front page of the business section of the New York Times. His family law and criminal defense cases have generated media attention.
