

Condensed Title:

A Resolution authorizing the Miami Beach Police Department to enter into a Memorandum of Understanding to participate in the security for the 2009 Presidential Inauguration in Washington D.C.

Key Intended Outcome Supported:

Maintain crime rates at or below national trends.

Supporting Data (Surveys, Environmental Scan, etc.): Safety was ranked No. 1 by residents as one of the changes that will make Miami Beach a better place; safety across the City was one of the most important areas affecting the quality of life; and 78% of residents rated the quality of services provided by City Police as excellent or good.

Issue:

Shall the City of Miami Beach execute a Memorandum of Understanding with the Metropolitan Police Department of Washington, D.C. to provide crowd control and security for the 2009 Presidential Inauguration in Washington, D.C.?

Item Summary/Recommendation:

The Miami Beach Police Department (MBPD) has been invited by the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD) of Washington D.C. to assist with the security and crowd control for the 2009 Presidential Inauguration in Washington D.C. To fulfill the operational needs of this detail a compliment of 53 sworn personnel will participate. It has been the practice of the MPD, United States Secret Service, United States Marshalls Service, National Park Service and the Federal Bureau of Investigation to utilize local and state police agencies from throughout the United States to assist in providing security and crowd control during Presidential Inaugurations. To facilitate this effort the Presidential Inauguration Task Force was formed with state, local and federal law enforcement agencies to effectively promote the safety of the President of the United States, inaugural participants, the public, visitors and residents while allowing individuals and groups to exercise their legal rights. To ensure proper law enforcement powers, MBPD personnel will be deputized as Special Deputy U.S. Marshalls and deputation authority by the United States Attorney General. In addition, all costs associated with salaries, overtime, travel, room and board will be reimbursed by the District of Columbia with funds provided by the United States general revenue fund. Travel will be via airplane to Washington D.C. beginning January 18, and returning on January 21, 2009. By participating in this event, the MBPD personnel will gain valuable experience in major event coordination and receive national exposure.
