Wounded Warrior Amputee Softball Team is coming to Miami Beach

The Wounded Warrior Amputee Softball Team will be making their first South Florida appearance December 16 & 17 here in Miami Beach at Flamingo Park in a bracket style South Ball Exhibition game against local Police and Fire Department. The team members have two things in common:

1. They are current or former members of the United States Armed Forces.
2. They all have some type of amputation received post 9/11, some members have double amputations.

To watch these guys play is nothing short of amazing. Miami Beach Police is hosting the team's visit in VIP style, with help from the Miami Beach community. The Royal Palm Hotel donating their rooms and Mango's Tropical Café sponsoring the majority of their airfare.

Tickets are $10.00 which will get you access to both days of events. The ticket is in the form of a silicone wrist band with the US Flag and Wounded Warrior printed on them.

The main event will be the Saturday at 8pm vs. the MBPD in which the 13th Army Band will be playing the National Anthem and several accolades will be given to the Warrior team from the City. As an added bonus Mango's Tropical Café is sponsoring the Official Wounded Warrior After Party Saturday night, anyone with a wrist band will get VIP entrance (no line, no waiting, no cover charge) after the game.

All proceeds will be donated. Those who don't want to attend can still purchase a band to donate the $10.00
