PRESS RELEASE

The City of Miami Beach has a Summer Camp And After School Program that Rock!

Miami Beach, FL – The City of Miami Beach Parks & Recreation Department offered a variety of fun and exciting activities for all campers to enjoy during the summer of 2007. Children registered for Summer Camp were able to participate in a variety of fieldtrips, play many outdoor and indoor games, make new friends, have tons of fun and even performed at the Miami Beach Convention Center. "This summer was awesome! I loved coming to camp and hanging out with all my friends," said camper Paola Suarez from the Scott Rakow Youth Center camp. Onsite activities for summer camp participants also included ice-skating, bowling, swimming and an array of special events.

The Parks & Recreation Department has more in store for the upcoming school year for children in grades K-12, and will begin accepting after school registration beginning August 6, 2007. Registered after school members will have the opportunity to participate in an assortment of sports, games, special events, and take advantage of onsite activities. Membership prices for the fall quarter beginning August 20, 2007 through November 18, 2007 is $150 for City of Miami Beach residents and $300 for non-residents. FREE after school transportation will be provided for members that attend Biscayne Elementary, Treasure Island Elementary, South Pointe Elementary, Fienberg Fisher Elementary, North Beach Elementary, Nautilus Middle School and Miami Beach Senior High. For more information concerning the after school program please contact the Scott Rakow Youth Center at 305-673-7767, Muss Park at 305-676-7765, North Shore Park Youth Center at 305-861-3616 or Flamingo Park at 305-531-5636 ext. 26.
